

Agnė Razmislavičiūtė - Palionienė

Head of Fisheries Unit at the Ministry of Agriculture (Lithuania)

Agnė Razmislavičiūtė - Palionienė is now a leading expert on Fisheries at the Ministry of Agriculture of Lithuania. She has 13 years of experience of working in Fisheries administration, including 4 years of representing Lithuania's interests in the EU. Agnė is an experienced moderator and negotiator at national, regional and EU-level discussions; she was chairing the EU Council's Fisheries working groups and co-chairing the EMFF and multiannual management plans negotiations with the European Parliament and the European Commission on behalf of the EU Council in 2013.